

CHRISTIAN UNION AT YALE

“Bringing the Gospel to these influential universities is about the most strategic thing one might do in America today. Christian Union is nothing less than an answer to many prayers over the decades, not least my own.”

Christian Union at Yale

YALE POSSESSES A RICH CHRISTIAN HISTORY. IN 1701 THE UNIVERSITY was established with the motto Lux Et Veritas (“Light and Truth”) with the goal that “youth may be instructed in the Arts and Sciences (and) through the blessing of Almighty God may be fitted for public employment both in church and state.” Over the years the university increasingly secularized, leaving students to depend on campus ministries and local churches for spiritual enrichment. To help meet that need, Matt Bennett launched Christian Union at Yale in 2011.

Christian Union shapes the lives of students through its rigorous Bible courses, one-on-one mentorship with high-caliber ministry fellows, and a compelling weekly leadership lecture series. By God’s grace, the ministry has grown from a handful of students in Bible courses in 2011 to 62 students in the spring of 2018.

Christian Union seeks a spiritually vibrant nation marked by Christian values permeating every corner of society. To that end, the ministry is launching young men and women with determination to use their strategic influence for godly purposes. Christian Union students are leading change on campus: marshaling intellectual reasoning in the classroom, championing the Christian worldview, and transforming campus culture. Alumni are influencing the world’s leading institutions and graduate programs.

We believe God wants to do so much more. Through your financial partnership, Christian Union can hire additional ministry fellows to reach even more students.

Join Christian Union in asking the Lord to move powerfully at Yale, rejoicing in His promise to draw near to all who seek Him.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

– II CHRONICLES 7:14

A STUDENT'S PERSPECTIVE

"I am so thankful that Christian Union has been a part of my life, and know my relationship with God is all the better for it."
