

CHRISTIAN UNION

Graduate Ministry Fellow Job Description Harvard Business School Harvard University—Cambridge, MA

Organization Background:

The Christian Union was formed in 2002 for the purpose, by God's power and with the help of other ministries, to change the world by bringing sweeping spiritual transformation to the Ivy League Universities, thereby developing and mobilizing godly leadership for all sectors of society. The ministry is growing fast and is in need of dynamic and energetic Christian leaders desirous of expanding the knowledge of Jesus Christ in the Ivy League. For more information, please see www.Christian-Union.org.

The Christian Union seeks a qualified individual to serve as a Graduate Ministry Fellow to students at Harvard Business School (HBS). HBS routinely ranks as one of the top business schools in the U.S. It is one of the largest business schools in the world and possesses one of the largest and most influential alumni networks of any institution in the world. Given the high capacity nature of HBS students and alumni, qualified candidates will need to be able to intersect well with dynamic, business-minded leaders and have the presence and experience to command the respect of such individuals.

Graduate ministry fellows at HBS are responsible for ministering to Christian and non-Christian business school students alike, overseeing programs and social events, teaching Christian students the Scriptures and sharing the Gospel with non-Christians.

Responsibilities:

- Recruit and teach students the Scriptures in 12-week intensive small-group Bible courses and in one-on-one settings
- Develop and impart a comprehensive integration of faith and work, especially applying the Scriptures to business and marketplace issues and practices
- Recruit and coach teams of students to organize outreach, social and other events
- Organize, implement and oversee additional important discipleship and outreach programs including conferences, evangelistic events, speaker series, and others as needed
- Share the gospel with students individually, as well as in small and large group settings
- Offer hospitality and friendship to students (and possibly spouses/families) through meals, parties and other social gatherings
- Evaluate the effectiveness of ministry programs with other Christian Union Fellows in order to suggest and implement modifications
- Assume other responsibilities as needed for the sake of the ministry on campus, or for the sake of the overall Christian Union ministry

Qualifications:

Christian

- Strong devotion to Jesus Christ, holiness, and a passion to make Him known
- Knowledge of the basics of the faith, as well as the heart and capacity to study and teach complex theological issues
- In agreement with our Statement of Faith and Ethics

Personal

- Proven success in the marketplace
- Adaptable to the culture of an Ivy League school
- Passion for students to know and follow Jesus Christ, and ability to form friendships with graduate students quickly and easily
- Excellent communication ability
- Capable of delegating responsibility to students and coaching them to performance standards
- Quick learning ability to absorb the best practices of the ministry
- Strong teaming skills in order to work well with other ministry fellows

Professional

- Five years minimum professional experience
- Ability to meet deadlines, and to work independently to complete tasks
- Theological training helpful but not required

Note: Christian Union is seeking a Graduate Ministry Fellow and Director to launch a ministry at Harvard Business School starting this summer (summer of 2013).

Compensation is based on a number of factors and ranges from $70,000 - $95,000. This is a full-time paid position, so no individual support-raising required. You will, however, be asked to participate in general fund-raising activities. Interested applicants should send a résumé and cover letter to Opportunities@Christian-Union.org.