Christian Union’s Ministry at Harvard Law

HARVARD POSSESSES A RICH CHRISTIAN HERITAGE. IN 1636, THE university was established with the motto “Veritas” (“Truth”) with the goal that “everyone shall consider the main end of his life and studies to know God and Jesus Christ.” Harvard Law was established in 1817, with much less emphasis on faith. Over the years the university increasingly secularized, leaving students to depend on campus ministries and local churches for spiritual enrichment. To help meet that need, Christian Union began ministry at Harvard Law in 2013.

Christian Union shapes the lives of students through its rigorous Bible courses, one-on-one mentorship with high-caliber ministry fellows, and by resourcing a compelling weekly leadership lecture series.

Christian Union seeks a spiritually vibrant nation marked by Christian values permeating every corner of society. To that end, the ministry is launching young men and women with determination to use their strategic influence for godly purposes. Christian Union students are leading change on campus: marshaling intellectual reasoning in the classroom, championing the Christian worldview, and transforming campus culture. Alumni are influencing the world’s leading institutions and graduate programs.

We believe God wants to do so much more. Through your financial partnership, Christian Union can hire additional ministry fellows to reach even more students.

Join Christian Union in asking the Lord to move powerfully at Harvard Law, rejoicing in His promise to draw near to all who seek Him.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

– II CHRONICLES 7:14
