

CHRISTIAN UNION

Developing Christian Leaders to Transform Culture

Teaching Fellow Job Description Harvard College—Cambridge, MA

Organization Background:

Christian Union was formed in 2002 for the purpose, by God's power and with the help of other ministries, to change the world by bringing sweeping spiritual transformation to the nation's most strategic universities, thereby developing and mobilizing godly leadership for all sectors of society. The ministry is in need of dynamic and energetic Christians desirous of expanding the knowledge of Jesus Christ in these institutions. For more information, please see www.ChristianUnion.org.

Christian Union seeks a qualified individual to serve as a Teaching Fellow to students in an academically rigorous setting. Teaching Fellows are responsible for ministering to Christian and non-Christian students, teaching Christian students the Scriptures and theology, and sharing the Gospel with non-believers.

Responsibilities:

- Recruit and teach students the Scriptures in 12-week intensive small-group Bible Courses and in one-on-one settings
- With students individually, in small groups and in front of large groups, teach the Bible and Christian theology at the level of graduate seminary courses.
- Draw on your Biblical and theological expertise to help select and develop resources for the ministry, and also engage the culture through speaking engagements, op-eds, and publishing
- Share the gospel with students individually, as well as in small and large group settings
- Offer hospitality and friendship to students through meals and other social gatherings
- With other Christian Union Fellows, regularly evaluate the effectiveness of ministry programs in order to suggest and implement modifications
- Assume other responsibilities as needed for the sake of the ministry on campus, or for the sake of the overall Christian Union ministry

Qualifications:

Christian

- Strong devotion to Jesus Christ, holiness, and a passion to make Him known

- Knowledge of the basics of the faith, as well as the heart and capacity to study and teach complex theological issues
- In agreement with the Christian Union Statement of Faith and Ethics

Personal

- Embraces and embodies Christian Union's mission, vision, and values
- Adaptable to the culture of a highly secular academic environment
- Passion for students to know and follow Jesus Christ, and ability to form friendships with students quickly and easily
- Excellent communication ability
- Capable of delegating responsibility to students and coaching them to performance standards
- Quick learning ability to absorb the best practices of the ministry
- Strong teaming skills in order to work well with other Teaching and Ministry Fellows

Professional

- M.Div. required and Ph.D. in New Testament, Old Testament, or Theology preferred.
- Ability to meet deadlines, and to work independently to complete tasks

Christian Union has both Teaching Fellow and Ministry Fellow positions. The requirements and responsibilities of these two different positions overlap in many ways, except for the expectation of stronger theological training and teaching ability for Teaching Fellows and stronger professional and organizational skills for Ministry Fellows. Christian Union is currently seeking a Teaching or Ministry Fellow to join its team ministering to undergraduate students at Harvard College for an immediate start.

Competitive compensation and benefits offered. This is a full-time paid position, so no individual support-raising required. You will, however, be asked to participate in general fund-raising activities. Interested applicants should send a résumé and cover letter to Opportunities@ChristianUnion.org.
